

* Required

Under the Big Top! A Three-day general and special education conference!

Join us under the big top for a three-day conference on general and special education topics.

Our thrilling performances/sessions will entertain, amaze, and terrify you as we cover topics including, but not limited to:

- Opening keynote speakers: Hank and Ian Smith presenting on "The Autistic Life"
- Ringmaster 101: Being an Admin. Designee
- Planning for Life After the Circus! Advanced ITP Development
- Closing keynote speaker: Jan Tomsy!

This extravaganza is appropriate for preschool, elementary, secondary, and post-secondary educators; related service providers, and administrators.

Date: Monday, August 2 - Wednesday, August 4, 2021

Click HERE to view the schedule of topics and presenters (subject to change).

Time: 9:00 - 3:30 p.m.

Location: Virtual Conference - Link to join conference and access materials will be sent to registered participants.

Approvals: Approval of the Director of Special Education from each Solano County SELPA member LEA is required for attending.

Fee: Complimentary admission for all general and special education professionals, including nonpublic schools and agencies.

First Name:*

Last Name:*

Position/Title:*

Work Email:*

Please enter your work email. Personal emails will not be registered.

School District:*

Please send a confirmation email to the address below*:

Submit